FRIDAY 20TH MARCH 2026

MESSAGE FROM MRS PRICE

A huge thank you to everyone who has sent in chocolate donations today! What an amazing selection we have ready for our family bingo night next week.

Year 2 had a fantastic trip to St. Anne's on Wednesday where they mud dipped in the salt marshes, beachcombed and enjoyed minibeast hunting in the sand dunes. I believe that some children got wetter than others, but that they all had a wonderful day and represented our school very well indeed. Your grown ups were very proud of you, Year 2.

Tomorrow morning, our team of cross country runners will be meeting in Astley Park to take part in the annual inter-school competition. We look forward to hearing all about it next week.

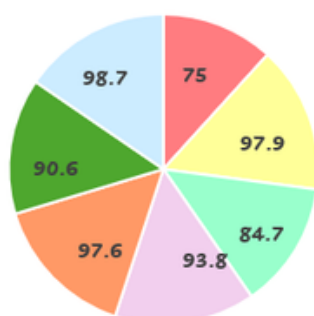

Next week is a busy week, starting with a celebration day for Eid on Monday and ending with a celebration day for Easter on Friday. Year 3 and 4 have also been working hard on final rehearsals for their show which they are looking forward to welcoming an audience to on Wednesday and Thursday.

Have a great weekend
Mrs Price

£20.26 Challenge

Thank you so much to the children who are working super hard to raise money for school - you are amazing!

Lacey, Freya, Esme and Harper have been busy making and selling loom bands. So far they have raised £27!

Raven and Willow's fundraising is still ongoing but they made an amazing start with over £50 raised at their 'Pet's Corner'!

Darcie has been making bracelets and keyrings, so far raising £11.
Tyler, Oliver and Kyrah have been busy selling sweets

Eliza raised over £30 by buying charms for crocs and selling them on at a profit - what an amazing business woman!

Guess the name of the Bunny

The children in The Hive are running a competition next week to guess the name of the bunny. This will run each day for £1 per turn.
